WHERE GOD LOVES TO BE

God does not go the way that people want to prescribe for him; rather, his way is beyond all comprehension, free and self-determined beyond all proof.

Where reason is indignant,
where our nature rebels,
where our piety anxiously keeps us away:
that is precisely where God loves to be...

God is not ashamed of the lowliness of human beings.

God marches right in.

He chooses people as his instruments and performs his wonders where one would least expect them.

God is near to lowliness; he loves the lost, the neglected, the unseemly, the excluded, the weak and broken.
